

Archdiocese of Atlanta Youth Ministry

Office of Religious Education Mission Statement:

The Archdiocese of Atlanta Office of Religious Education (ORE) has as its mission service to our Archbishop, as he responds to the Gospel call to "go and make disciples of all nations."

Office Members:

- Promote life-long formation in the Catholic faith, through age-appropriate religious education, Sacramental formation, and catechetical leadership training.
- Remain faithful to the message and the messenger, Jesus Christ, the teaching authority of the Holy Father, the Magisterium of the Catholic Church, and our Archbishop.
- Respond to the educational, Sacramental formation, and other needs of pastors and other clergy, as well as religious education staffs and other agencies, groups, and individuals of the Archdiocese, sensitive also to multicultural and disabled interests.

Youth Office Mission Statement:

The mission of the Youth Office of the Archdiocese of Atlanta is to serve the needs of middle and high school teens and the adults who minister to/with them in our parishes and schools by providing resources, training, networking and direct service programming.
